Mid-Continent student leaders are expected to:

- Be trustworthy individuals
- Be true to who they are
- Live so that their words, choices, behavior, and media are consistent at all times with Scripture and the MCU Student Handbook
- Have a personal relationship with Christ and daily seek to know God better
- Complete assigned tasks by deadlines
- Have good time management skills
- Attend all meetings
- Contribute to leadership team and campus life
- Be a team player
- Put other’s interests before their own
- Be willing to try new things and new ways of leadership
- Take an interest in and care for all students
- Develop an ongoing relationship with all students
- Take action to apply campus theme and position expectations
- Participate in creating a community that includes all, respects all, and cares for all, as defined in Scripture
