The Mid-Continent University TAG Leader:

- Assists the Director of Student Activities and TAG Coordinator in running Orientation Weekend along with the Student Leadership Staff.
- Leads a small group of incoming students through Orientation weekend and continues to serve as a leader, role model, and mentor throughout the semester.
- Works with incoming students to build relationships and adjust to campus life throughout Orientation Weekend and the semester.
- Serves as a role model, resource, and example of MCU Standards and Community to all incoming students.
- Must have and maintain a 2.5 or higher cumulative GPA
- Must be a rising Sophomore, Junior, or Senior
- Must complete at least 12 credit hours per semester
- Abides by the MCU Student Leader Expectations and the MCU Student Handbook.

- MCU Student Leaders will:
  - Be trustworthy individuals
  - Be true to who they are
  - Live so that their words, choices, behavior, and media are consistent at all times with Scripture and the MCU Student Handbook
  - Have a personal relationship with Christ and daily seek to know God better
  - Complete assigned tasks by deadlines
  - Have good time management skills
  - Attend all meetings
  - Contribute to leadership team and campus life
  - Be a team player
  - Put other’s interests before their own
  - Be willing to try new things and new ways of leadership
  - Take an interest in and care for all students
  - Develop an ongoing relationship with all students
  - Take action to apply campus theme and position expectations
  - Participate in creating a community that includes all, respects all, and cares for all, as defined in Scripture

I, ____________________________, accept the position of TAG Leader as described in this job description. I understand and agree to follow all of the requirements.

Signed:______________________________________  Date:__________________________